

BOOST WOODARD FOR CLUB OFFICE

Local Kiwanian Certain Their Man Will Be Governor

MOTOR TO CONVENTION

Forty Boosting Tulsans Will Go to San Antonio for District Meet

Nor less than 40 boosting Tulsans—Kiwanians and their wives—expect to leave Tulsa the evening of September 2 for San Antonio, Texas to attend the district Kiwanian convention which will be held there September 3 and 4. They will spend four days on an invigorating trip and splendid entertainment during the convention and, presumably, they confidently expect to realize their desire to see John H. Woodard, first president of the Tulsa Kiwanian club, elected president of the East Texas Kiwanian district. Those who are going to the convention do not merely "hope" they will "try" to elect him to this responsible office—they declare they "will" see that he is elected.

Woodard was chosen president

Woodard Boosted for Club Governorship

In the organization there is a movement afoot to nominate him as a sufficient campaigner for Woodard across the convention. That there may be plenty of men to the efforts of the Tulsa delegation, the Tulsa jazz pirates, a thoroughly bad orchestra, will accompany it and drown the convention at frequent intervals.

Damages for Death of Son in Auto Accident

A $15,000 damage suit, growing out of the death of their 16-year-old boy, Lloyd Roberts, Mrs. Mary Roberts, widow of Clyde Roberts, 1862 East Katz who charged the men with maliciously destroying her son's car, was filed yesterday in the Oklahoma City court. The Roberts' son, George E. Roberts, died June 28 when his automobile, driven by his father, hit a car driven by Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley and driven by those same drivers. It is claimed that the car was exceeding the speed limit.

Psychological discrimination may be useful occasionally to determine whether irreconcilability represents a public policy or a state of mind.

State Officers Charged With Damaging Machine

In the organizing meeting a movement was made to nominate Woodard for the office of State highway director. That was the first choice of the Tulsa delegation, and was one of the first stories transmitted from their camp. At the last district convention, however, he was elected instead, and given the position of vice-chairman.

John H. Woodard, the most popular member of the Tulsa delegation, was elected chairman of the Tulsa delegation.
